

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JACKSONVILLE, Florida (September 10, 2008) - Collins Capital Management, Inc is pleased to announce that Sheila Collins has been named one of the 2008 Women of Influence by The Jacksonville Business Journal.

Sheila Collins was among 22 accomplished women selected by The Business Journal out of 80 nominees to represent the best and brightest in a variety of industries. The editors, along with Publisher David Sillick and Research Director Eleanor Snite, selected this year's honorees based on their career accomplishments and on their work in the community.

It is especially notable since CCMI is one of the first woman-owned and operated Advisory firms in the Jacksonville area. The firm's focus is on strategic Wealth Management for high net worth individuals and businesses. Sheila and her dedicated staff achieve this through disciplined portfolio development and comprehensive, tailored financial planning.

Sheila Collins is the owner of Collins Capital Management, Inc a Jacksonville based Investment Advisory firm. She has over 29 years of experience in the finance industry and holds multiple licenses and registrations.

Sheila is a member of American Association of Women Accountants (ASWA), Women Business Owners of Jacksonville (WBO), the Jacksonville Chapter of the CFA Institute and serves the local community as a Board member of Atlantic Marine Community Advisory Board. She also proudly supports various charities throughout the Northeast Florida area.

Contact:

For more information on the firm or its services call (904) 493-7500 or visit www.collinscmi.com.

###