Local Safe Haven Shelter welcomes Sheila Collins to the Board of Directors

JACKSONVILLE, Florida (June 30, 2009) - Collins Capital Management, Inc is pleased to announce that Sheila Collins has been selected by Hubbard House, Inc., as an incoming board member from 2009-2012. Hubbard House is known as a local safe haven shelter from domestic violence since 1976.

Sheila Collins is the owner of Collins Capital Management, Inc (CCMI) a Jacksonville based SEC Registered Investment Advisory firm. She has over 30 years of experience in the finance industry and holds multiple licenses and registrations. CCMI focuses on strategic Wealth Management for affluent individuals and small businesses. Sheila and her dedicated staff provide disciplined portfolio development, performance analysis and comprehensive, tailored financial planning.

Sheila is a member of the CFA Institute. She also proudly supports various charities throughout the Northeast Florida area.

Hubbard House is a nationally recognized leader in domestic violence intervention. Founded as the first domestic violence shelter in Florida in 1976, Hubbard House is a certified, comprehensive domestic violence center providing programs and services to more than 5,000 women, children, and men annually in Duval and Baker counties. While Hubbard House is most known for its emergency shelter, the agency also provides extensive adult and youth outreach services, school-based education, nationally accredited therapeutic childcare, batterers' intervention programs, court advocacy and volunteer and community education opportunities.
