Dear Sheila Collins:

On behalf of Financial Advisor magazine, I would like to again congratulate you on being ranked as one of the top RIA firms in our 2011 RIA Ranking Survey. This annual survey has become the benchmark of success in the RIA market and to be included on this list is an outstanding achievement for your firm.

Financial Advisor has become the industry's most respected and preeminent publication by providing our readers with cutting-edge news and research to keep them on the pulse of the investment marketplace. To further celebrate your success, I would like to extend an invitation to all of the advisors in your firm to personally receive Financial Advisor magazine. To assist in this effort, enclosed are complimentary subscription cards for you to distribute to your colleagues who may not currently be receiving the publication.

Congratulations again on your firm's achievement. All the best for continued success.

Regards,

Bill DiModugno
