KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Julie Weeks, President & CEO, Womenable

KEYNOTE TOPIC:

The Third Wave of Women's Enterprise: Growth, Impact, Influence

More and more women are in business, both in corporate leadership positions and as the leaders of their own enterprises. The next wave of women's enterprise development promises to propel women to new heights of influence not only here in the US, but abroad. Leading entrepreneurial thinker and researcher Julie Weeks, President and CEO of Womenable, will explain where we have been, where we are now, and where we could be going in the 'third wave' of women's enterprise. The future holds both promise and peril, and it will be up to us to determine where we go from here.
